Future Productions

A 3 Act Play is being held on 15th and 16th June at Colwyn Bay Theatre. The younger members of the players will be putting on a play in September. More details to follow on these productions.

Flint Street Nativity

Thanks to Glenys, Geoff and Roma for arranging the trip to Liverpool to see Flint Street Nativity. An enjoyable day was had by all and perhaps further theatre trips may follow.

Storage

Our costume storage is nearly full. Anyone who knows of anywhere else suitable could you please get in touch with a member of the committee.

Last production

The 60's theme evening was well supported at Pydew and Conwy. Our thanks go to everyone involved in the production.

Diamond Jubilee

A buffet is to held at the Cricket Club to celebrate 60 years of the Colwyn Abbey Players. All members are invited along with any past members who would like to come. Invites to follow.

Victorian Extravaganza

We are hoping to perform at the Llandudno Extravaganza this year. With some sing, dancing and a small melodrama. If anyone has any ideas for the melodrama, of about ten minutes, please let one of the committee know.
